

Message from the Principal

Greetings SVAE Family,

The weather has been a nice change the last few days. It feels like fall is right around the corner. The preschool through 2nd grade had fieldtrips this week! A fun time was had by all!

This week is a tough reminder how precious life is. Two families that were part of the SVAE family in years past, had loved ones pass away. Pastor Buz had a chapel in dealing with grief hoping to help those who knew the families. Please continue to pray for the Fralick and Toma families.

Have a blessed Sabbath!

Mr. Hammond

Communication and collaboration are a high priority for us at SVAE. The following list outlines the initiatives we have taken to achieve this:

BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS

- Teachers endeavor to visit all new families before school starts.
- Several events are built into the calendar that provide opportunity for relationship building.
- Updates and information are provided through: parent bulletins, classroom newsletters, emails, parent alerts, phone calls, RenWeb and Facebook.

COMMUNICATION LINKED TO LEARNING

- Teachers explain test scores when needed or if asked (Usually at parent/ teacher conferences).
- Parent teacher conferences are held twice a year, or as needed.
